CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 5s., and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and, if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound, in part payment of the purchase money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. All lots are sold as shown and with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. Messrs. Sotheby & Co. act as agents; they have full discretion to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in either case giving any reason; they are not responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot or for any fault or defect in it, and make no warranty whatever.
- VI. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's risk and expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to a charge for warehousing. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they may then be sold immediately, either publicly or by private treaty, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above conditions, the money deposited in part-payment shall be forfeited; and the defaulter at this sale shall make good any loss arising from the re-sale, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales.

To prevent confusion no purchases can be claimed or removed during the sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & CO. are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

IMPORTANT SOUTH AMERICAN ANTIQUITIES.

The Property of Henry E. Lawrence, Esq.,

THE AUTHORITY ON PRE-COLUMBIAN RELICS, WHO DISCOVERED THESE OBJECTS IN THE COURSE OF HIS EXPLORATIONS.

- 128 A BURIAL JAR, black, 5½ in. long, of an early Inca period, showing on the neck the head of an Inca Noble, on the handle Inca frog-faced birds, and on the shoulder prostrate priests
-  Discovered in 1928 in a burial cave on the lower Table lands of the Andes, about 13,000 feet above sea level.
- 129 ANOTHER BURIAL JAR, 10 in. high, in black pottery, representing a priest of the early Inca dynasty holding the emblem of the sun god in front of him. From the circumstances in which this jar was found with a skeleton in a large urn, it would appear that the priests had committed acts of sacrilege and had been buried alive, together with this jar depicting his crime [Plate IV]
-  Discovered in 1928 during an expedition of the Trujillo region, the site of a buried city of great antiquity, part of which was rebuilt and inhabited by the early Incas. The relic has round its neck silver ingots and gold nuggets, with which it was found.

130 A PEAR-SHAPED JAR, $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. high, of the early Chimu period, from the buried city of Tiahuanaco, 13,000 feet above sea level. The jar is ornamented with an archaic face with large mouth, and at the sides (?) seated figures; both the face and the two figures are in relief. The colouring is mainly in terra-cotta picked out with brown; an important and very early specimen [Plate IV]

131 THE FIGURE OF A GOD, in squared stone, 10 in. high by $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $2\frac{1}{4}$ in., a well preserved specimen of great antiquity from the buried city of Tiahuanaco. The figure is coloured a reddish yellow and bears geometric designs. The hands are folded on the chest and hold a panel of picture writing; neither this nor other ideographs on the skirt have as yet been deciphered [Plate IV]

 Removed by Mr. Lawrence, in 1928, from a small burial chamber which was alive with large double-bodied tarantulas.

This and the next lot are believed to be the only specimens of the kind brought to England.

132 A COLLECTION OF TWENTY STONE MONOLITHS, household gods of the early Chimu age, similar in type to the last lot and varying in height from $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. to 1 in. They bear incised ideographic designs

 Discovered in 1928 strewn at the feet of the remains of a mummified woman, close to the spot where the silver objects of Francisco Pizarro were found by Mr. Lawrence.

133 A COLLECTION OF SEVENTEEN SMALL GODS, of copper and gold alloy, of the pre-Chimu periods, from $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. to 1 in. long. Of these, ten represent the parrot-faced god and are the only specimens of the kind known to have reached England. Nothing appears to be known of the cult nor of the race who worshipped this deity [Plate V]

Another Property.

134 A Peruvian Vase with figure of a man in front; three others, all in black ware; and an oval horizontal Vase, in buff ware 5

SOUTH ARABIAN ANTIQUITIES.

The Property of Mr. Kaiky Muncherjee, of Aden.

The material is alabaster, except where stated otherwise.

- 135 A STATUETTE, 14½ in. high, solid eyes, pupils drilled and inlaid, hair hammer-dressed, ears large and flat, moustache not shown, strongly stippled beard, one armlet: the tunic reaches below the knee, the neck-hole is shown; and a single fold across the body, no belt, right hand broken, but perforated, perhaps to hold a rod, inscribed Karibail Yuhawdi, the first of these names belongs to several kings, the second seems to be new
- 136 A STATUETTE, 16 in. high, solid eyes, drilled but not inlaid, deeply arched eyebrows, hair short, ears flat and very large no moustache or beard, no armlet, the free edge of dress is in the middle and folds over to the left, no belt, right hand perforated, inscribed Abiada 'of Lihyan; the name Abiada' is frequently found in inscriptions, it also occurs in the Old Testament; Lihyan may be a personal name, mentioned in Corpus Inscriptionum Himyaritisarum no. III, or the name of a tribe
- 137 A STATUETTE, 19 in. high, inlaid eyes, arched brows as in last mentioned, short hair, large flat ears, no moustache or beard, but a groove like a double chin, neckhole of tunic shown, the tunic falls below the knees, and is very slightly drawn in at waist; the breasts are slightly indicated, but the figure is certainly male, like the rest; inscribed Shukaim son of "Ammiada"; "Ammiada" is found as a tribal name, but may also be a personal name; the name Shukaim is found in classical Arabic, and in a Lihyani inscription (Jaussen et Savignac), Mission Archeologique no. 221
- 138 A SLAB WITH BULL'S HEAD, 12 in. by 7 in.; the heavy folds round eyes and nostrils recall Syrian and Cappadocian clay figures of uncertain age; the short thick horns may result from the softness of the alabaster, inscribed Votive offering (?) of "Ammalla Midrar"

- 139 A SLAB, WITH IBEX RECUMBENT, $4\frac{1}{4}$ in. by $4\frac{1}{4}$ in.; the background here, as in the case of the other slabs with false-reliefs, is cut away, but the highest plane of the figure is flush with the panel-frame; here the panel-border follows the broken edges of the slab; fragments of an inscription remain, A N S indicating that an inscribed stone was used for the work of art
- 140 A SLAB, WITH HORSE AND RIDER, 7 in. by 5 in.; the rider is full-face with one foot below (and behind) the horse, wearing short tunic, of which the lower edge, concave, is above the body of the horse; the right hand grasps a sword; the horse-bridle has been misdrawn as a collar; some letters on each side of head, partly worn away; perhaps (engraved) and written by Dabb
- 141 A SLAB, WITH HUMAN FIGURE, $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $3\frac{3}{4}$ in., full-face, the hand does not grasp the sword, the feet are turned to the left in profile, the tunic hardly reaches the knees; inscription on right and left sides meaning That is Sa'dan Tausa; the first of these names is found in classical Arabic, the second is found in S. Arabian inscriptions as a local and as a tribal name
- 142 A LIMESTONE SLAB, WITH BIRD, seen from above, flying, 6 in. by $4\frac{1}{2}$ in.; plumage indicated by chevrons and cross hatching, the rim of the panel bulges to contain the wings; inscription in letters partly blackened Pheasant of Nejd; the word for pheasant is Persian, and is here in an older form than that which it assumes in classical Arabic
- 143 A Vase, with handle and cover, $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, 3 in. diam.
- 144 A Vessel, with two mask handles, ears meant for metal rings, 4 in. high, 4 in. diam.
- 145 An ovoid Vase, with blind handles and broad top, $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. high. $2\frac{1}{4}$ in. diam. at top
- 146 A Patera, $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. diam.; inscribed by perforation Bowl of Dabb; the name, which probably means lizard, is also found in the classical dialect
- 147 A Patera, $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. diam.
- 148 A Phial, with lid and blind handles, 2 in. high, $1\frac{3}{4}$ in. diam.

Other Properties.
